

I.M.P.A.C.T. Leadership Training

What is the I.M.P.A.C.T. Leadership Training?

The I.M.P.A.C.T. Leadership Training program provides training aimed to develop greater self-esteem, confidence, and leadership skills for individuals with disabilities. This series is an 8 week program where class is held once a week. Each class lasts two hours. We are also able to provide the training virtually if preferred.

Topics covered:

- Who I am
- Communication
- Feelings and Values
- Leadership
- Team building
- Rules and Laws
- Speech writing/Taking action
- Speech/Graduation

I.M.P.A.C.T. Trainers: I.M.P.A.C.T. is the South Carolina state-wide self-advocacy group made up of individuals who advocate for themselves and others with disabilities. One certified I.M.P.A.C.T. member/trainer will lead the workshop along with one support trainer.

If interested, please contact: Kristi Hartwell, Lead Advisor for the I.M.P.A.C.T. SC Self-Advocacy Council at: 803-935-5947 or Kristi.hartwell@uscmcd.sc.edu

Sponsored by:

