

SCPDO Privacy Policy

Last updated: September 22, 2025

Who we are

The South Carolina Partnership of Disability Organizations (SCPDO) is a coalition of organizations serving people with autism, brain injury, spinal cord injury, and intellectual & related disabilities across South Carolina. We are committed to inclusion, access, and civil rights.

Information we collect

We collect information you provide (name, email, stories or feedback) when you subscribe, pre-register for events, or contact us. We also collect basic site analytics (such as page views, device type, approximate location).

How we use information

We use information to communicate about Disability Advocacy Day, advocacy updates, and SCPDO news, to respond to questions and requests, and to improve our website and outreach. We do not sell your information.

Cookies & analytics

We may use cookies or similar technologies to understand how people use our site. You can adjust your browser settings to refuse cookies or alert you when cookies are being sent.

Your choices

You may unsubscribe from our emails anytime using the link in our messages or by contacting us at scpdoinfo@gmail.com. You may also email us to update or remove your information.

Data retention

We keep personal information only as long as needed for the purposes described, or as required by law. When no longer needed, it is deleted securely.

Children's privacy

Our website and forms are intended for general audiences. We do not knowingly collect information from children under 13.

Accessibility

We aim to make our site accessible to everyone. If you need this policy in another format, contact us at scpdoinfo@gmail.com.

Links to other sites

We may link to other websites. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of those sites.

Changes to this policy

We may update this page occasionally. The 'Last updated' date reflects the most recent changes.
