

MEMBERSHIP AGREEMENT

RESPONSIBILITIES:

As a representative of the organization listed below, I am authorized to commit support from the organization for the following principles:

1. To advocate for the full benefits of citizenship including rights, privileges, opportunities and responsibilities for individuals represented by member organizations of SCPDO.
2. To advocate for funding needs and access to a coordinated array of services and supports, determined by the individual's unique strengths, needs and choices.
3. To advise state agencies, commissions, councils and legislative bodies on issues relative to the needs of persons with disabilities and their families.
4. To provide a forum for networking and exchange of information and leadership development.
5. To provide a mechanism for public awareness related to the needs of individuals with disabilities.
6. To encourage the input of individuals with disabilities and their families on issues and policies.
7. To actively participate in the meetings of the SCPDO as required. Active participation is defined as attending at least 75% of scheduled meetings. Meetings will occur monthly, at a time to be determined, based on member availability. If unable to attend, I will communicate my absence to a member of the Executive Committee. I understand that my membership in SCPDO may be revoked by a vote of membership based on attendance.
8. To submit annual dues of $100, due July 1 of each year, or at the time of signing. Dues are to be used to promote the purpose of the SCPDO and support the annual event. Per SCPDO by-laws, dues may be waived by the Executive Committee for undue hardship.

RIGHTS:

1. As a current and active member, I will receive one vote on behalf of the organization I represent.
2. As a current and active member, the organization I represent will be promoted on printed and online literature of the SCPDO.

By signing this document, I, the appointee for the named organization, agree to abide by the terms described above through active participation and payment of annual dues.
